Do you have a significant other?

Ok...So(name), what has you looking for life insurance...? Did you recently experience a loss, or did you just want to make sure you have a

Ok. And were you thinking about somebody specific that you want to protect?

FIND WINDOW OF OPPORTUNITY

Great. So _____, the fastest and easiest way to get this done is to share the documents with you over a virtual call. Now, the hardest part of What's the latest you're usually out of work?

Do you have any errands after work this week...? Grocery store or anything like that?

Ok. And how long does it usually take you to get home... What...? 30 minutes?

And I assume your spouse will be home then as well?

Perfect. It's important to have the both of you there, so I just wanted to make sure...

SCHEDULE APPOINTMENT- today or tomorrow

OK. Let's do this....

I'm super busy today/tonight/tomorrow, but I can squeeze you in really quick at (time) ... Orrrrr... let me look... I'll have a few extra minutes between appointments at (time)?

IF DINNER TIME APPT: Now (name), (time) is obviously around dinner time, so if you need to make food or anything like that, it's not a big deal at all. You can just set your phone or laptop up on the table and we can hang out over dinner. Sound like a plan?

IF FRIDAY NIGHT APPT: Now (name), a lot of people go out to dinner or have events planned around (time) on Friday nights... I just want to make sure nothing like that will get in the way of our meeting...

IF SATURDAY OR SUNDAY APPT: Now (name), obviously the weekend can get pretty crazy and things like this can be easy to forget when you're out running around all day. Are you doing anything around (time) that might get in the way of our meeting...?

LATE NIGHT W/ KIDS APPT: Now (name), I'm sure it can get pretty crazy at night around (time)... Trying to put the kids to sleep and EARLY AM APPT: Now (name), it's pretty easy to sleep in and miss morning appointments... I just want to make sure (time) isn't too early...

Ok. Great! I always like to double check because when someone misses an appointment, it hurts another family that could've had that time slot...

INSTANT- Wait! Actually, (name)... I'm looking at my schedule right now... and I have a little bit of time right now before my next family. I can do you a favor and squeeze you in so you don't have to wait. → Great! Just go ahead and click that link I sent you and hop on..

Q: Why can't you just mail them to me? Virtual

Objections

A: We did mail you a letter a while back outlining the benefits available through your union. Now it's my job to deliver and explain your no-cost benefits, plus show you some exclusive benefits your union wants to make sure you're aware of- namely because they have great value and are not available anywhere else. There's a lot to the package and most members have several questions, so the union suggests we go over everything together before the benefits are sent out. It only takes 20-30 minutes depending on how many questions you have.

Q: I'm not interested

A: Obviously, you were interested at the time you filled out the card- or perhaps your spouse or partner filled out the card? Well, there are many union members finding great value in these benefits. And even if you were to leave the union, you will still be able to keep these benefits.

In addition, many of these benefits become even more important during retirement years. You're very fortunate to be able to receive these valuable benefits. (AD&D, Health Services Discount Card, FIG, CSKs, FWKs...)

Q: Why does my spouse need to be there?

A: If something were to happen to you, your spouse will be the one to handle everything. They need to know how the benefits work and how to make a claim. When we go over the benefits there will be certain things that may be more important for your spouse, while other benefits may be more important to you. And we all know that 4 ears are better than 2, so the union prefers both are present to understand the benefits package.

Q: How much will this cost?

A: The benefits you requested are provided at no cost. These are complimentary benefits your union is making available to you for being a member in good standing. Your union also wants you to be made aware of some permanent benefits as well, but those you must qualify for.

My job is to deliver and explain the benefits; get you enrolled in the programs and get the benefits activated. Does that make sense?

Q: I DON'T REMEMBER...filling out any card

A: Well, it may have been quite a while ago. Sometimes the union takes a while to get the cards back to us, but once we get them, we call right away. However, there are a lot of union members and we process a lot of cards. So, it may have taken a while to reach you. If you like, I can show you a copy of the card that was filled out by hand to refresh your memory.

Q: I filled out that card like 4 years ago

A: That's great. Good thing you filled out the card when you did to ensure you are locked in. These complimentary benefits are renewable each year at no cost. However, improvements to the program are made continually throughout the year, which is why your union likes us to keep you up to date so that you have all the latest and greatest benefits. Once you're enrolled, you're grand-fathered in even if you were to leave the union.

Q: I'm not in the Union/Association anymore

A: That's certainly not a problem. Because you requested these benefits at a time when you were a member in good standing, that locked you into the program so you can continue to receive these complimentary benefits each year at no-cost whether you're in the union or not. It's my job to simply deliver and explain the no-cost benefits and make you aware of our exclusive permanent benefits that are not available anywhere else.

Q: I've already been seen

A: That's great! When was that?

IF > 6 MONTHS: Well, I'm sure a lot has changed since then. In fact, improvements to the program are made continually throughout the year, which is why your union likes for us to keep you up to date so that you have all the latest and greatest benefits.

Q: If you're going to try and sell me something, I'm not interested (Or, I'm not gonna buy anything!)

A: I'm not going to try and sell you anything. Members who respond to the mailing- just like you did- are entitled to a complimentary benefits package. It's my job to simply deliver and explain the no-cost benefits and your union wants for us to make you aware of our exclusive permanent benefits namely for 2 reasons... #1. They have tremendous value and unique features #2. They are not available anywhere else.

However, you do have to qualify for those.

Q: I DON'T NEED any insurance

A: I'm not here to try and sell you insurance. In fact, you have a $_ ,000 Accidental Death & Dismemberment policy coming to you at no cost.

Members who respond to the mailing- just like you did- are entitled to a whole package of complimentary benefits. It's my job to simply deliver and explain the no-cost benefits and your union wants for us to make you aware of our exclusive permanent benefits namely for 2 reasons... #1. They have tremendous value #2. They are not available anywhere else.

However, you do have to qualify for those.

Q: Why do you guys keep calling us? (Annoyed)

A: Oh, I'm sorry if I'm disturbing you. The union just wants us to make sure you have your new 2021 complimentary benefits package. We are in the process of updating our database so you may be in the system more than once which is why someone else may have called. We hope to get the system cleaned up soon. We appreciate your patience. If anyone calls in the future, please understand we're just trying to make sure our members are being serviced properly. Again, sorry for any inconvenience.

Q: I work all day and I'm tired when I get home.

A: I totally understand. We've been busy too often working 6-7 days a week because we handle a lot of unions. When is your next day off? As mentioned, we do work weekends and do run appts up until 8pm. My schedule fills up fast, so let's pencil something in and then we can always change it if need be. I can send you a text the day before to remind you if you prefer.

Q: Myspouse and I work opposite shifts, so we really don't have time for this!

A: I totally understand. There must be 30 min you can squeeze in at some point over the next few days. We do work weekends and run appts each day up until 8pm. My schedule is busy too, so let's pencil something in and then we can always change it if need be. If you like, I can send you a reminder text the day before if that helps.

Q: Currently, I'm traveling...

A: That's certainly not a problem. In fact, after the pandemic we now run virtual appointments online for most of our members because it's the easiest way to connect with individuals and other family members who may not be in the same place at the same time.

Q: I'm going out of town.

A: That's not a problem. When are you leaving? We can take care of this right now it will only take 20-30 minutes or so depending on how many questions you may have. Is your spouse home now as well?

IF YES: Great! We should be able to knock this out quickly, so you have your benefits BEFORE you leave town.

IF NO: That's okay, however your union wants for both of you to be present. We do run virtual appointments to make it easy for members to connect with us. So, we can do this while you're away, or we can schedule a time for when you return to town. What's best for you? What day will you be back?

Q: If you have to come to the house, I'm not interested!

A: We don't need to come to your home. We can do a virtual delivery instead. In fact, we now run virtual appointments online for most of our members because it's just easier- especially for those with crazy schedules, or family members who may not be at the same place at the same time.

Q: I requested that Last Will and Testament or Child Safe Kit months ago

A: Can you believe that? We have been extremely busy with all of these request coming in and we are just now getting around to you. Now that it is your turn we just need 20 minutes to go over this either later today or tomorrow, which works best?

Now we want to track each script and rejections.

Calls 750 per week

appointments 36 appointments per week

Presentations 12 a week

3 sales a week

ALP Annual Life Premium $2000 this is calculated with the monthly premium multiplied by 12 months

Referrals 60

Income 1,000 this is calculated by the Annual Life Premium and the current percentage which changes with success but is currently 50%. So for example Lets say I get a 97.63 monthly premium sale that is multiplied by 12 we then get 1,171.56 we divide this by to or multiply by 50% and get 585.78. We then get .75 of this number as profit from the sale so I would get 439.34. Now after a season I will ge about 60% commission and higher so we need a place where commission can be updated and for now the default set to 50%.

I need 125 calls per day to reach my goal and I work 5 days a week.

6 appointments per day

2 presentations per day

We want to track it all. The rejection and then have a rebuttal quick easy to use buttons. I want to make it so agents can use this free tool possibly so if I get a lot of leads for states I don't have licenses I can sell the leads so the website would be a way to generate leads sell leads and use leads for my own business.

The buttons should be easy to click for rebuttals to pop up quickly but also track where in the script am I losing the customer so I can get an analysis of this so I can practice those parts better or reach out to trainers with data of where I am making mistakes for improvement that is the goal of this section of the app. For now make for me only but make it easy to plug and play others. I need to be able to see an analysis of what I am doing right or where I am hung up or failing to get the sale / presentation. These are the scripts simply to get a presentation at the moment.
